

OUR MISSION

Giving Adults Undergoing Cancer Treatment a Time to Remember who they are by Forgetting their Diagnosis for a Few Hours

THE EVENTS OF 2019

In 2019, we planned and funded 30 Nights Out! Each was unique, personalized, and crafted to provide JOY to an adult walking the cancer journey and their loved ones. Some wanted a day full of rest and relaxation, some chose to learn a new skill, others opted for outdoor adventure, while many others enjoyed an Experience at the show, ballfield, or concert venue. No matter how adventurous or low-key, each provided our recipient with something to look forward to and to feel a bit like themselves again.

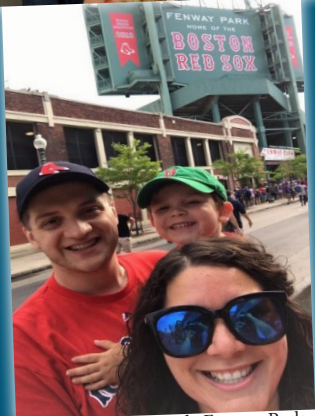

Karen and family met the band Barenaked Ladies

Kelly & her husband at Beardslee Castle

Cheers to Jan enjoying a limo ride to NYC

Rich & family outside Fenway Park

Karen & Co. with their masterpieces!

Pam and family at Yankee Stadium

Britta & her boyfriend at the show!

OUR WONDERFUL VOLUNTEERS

We were blessed this year to be joined by three of our former Experience recipients who now assist us as volunteers. Kathleen Graham, Karen Rossetti and Valerie Hynes are all working with our team to plan Night Out Experiences, and we are thrilled to have them on board! All of these ladies exude kindness, compassion, and teamwork. Welcome ladies and thank you all!

NIGHT OUT FOR YOU FUNDRAISERS

We can't say THANK YOU enough to all our supporters who donated, attended, and volunteered at our 2019 fundraisers! We are always looking to provide a Night Out of fun back to all of you who help promote our mission.

Good For a Laugh: We spent a night full of laughs last March during our Funny Fundraiser at Funny Bone in Crossgates Mall – who doesn't need a few laughs? Those comedians were hilarious, and we all took a few hours away from our to-do's in life.

Take Me Out to the Ballgame: We watched the Tri-City Valley Cats in action at Joe Bruno Stadium in July. Pre-game, we enjoyed dinner under the pavilion and marveled at a magic show. Vamos Gatos!

Harvest Hustle: We celebrated a morning of fitness, health and happiness at our 2nd annual 5K at the Colonie Mohawk Town Park. Run or walk – it was a great autumn day to be outdoors and moving!

Huge kudos not only to the Albany Funny Bone Comedy Club and the Tri-City Valley Cats, but to the sponsors of our 2019 Harvest Hustle: All-Star Wine & Spirits, CapCom, Capital City Roasters, The College Advisor of New York, Inc., Kellie Connery, Datto Inc., Janney Montgomery Scott, Orangetheory Fitness, Power Surge Nutrition and Wellness, Price Chopper, RJ McNamara Financial Planning, Riverview Orchard, Stewart's Shops., and 99.5 The River.

Other Community Fundraisers by YOU:

The New York Women's Expo sponsored us as their designated charity. Huge thanks to our good friend Dan Raymond of Zachary's Pastry Shoppe for assisting us with this event.

The Guilderland Chamber of Commerce selected us as their annual charity of choice for their Ladies' Night Out.

For the second year in a row, we were the recipients of the Philip J. Schuyler Achievement Academy Go Pink fundraiser.

The Boght Hills Elementary School PTA in Latham held a lemonade fundraiser in our honor.

Employees at the NYS Office of the State Comptroller donated proceeds from their dress-down day.

ABC Sports and Fitness in Latham donated proceeds from their Body Pump launch, Zumba Party in the Pink, and several other classes held during October as well as from sales of their breast cancer awareness apparel.

Donna Balcom of Corinth requested donations from loved ones for her birthday.

Lori Todd & folks at Transcendent Trucking held a Jeans Day fundraiser in our honor.

Angela Britt of Latham donated proceeds from her Cabi Clothing parties.

Lauren Cote of Clifton Park hosted a bake sale at her work.

Rose Schuh of Albany donated proceeds from her Pampered Chef online sales.
